

Teacher: what would happen if there is a third world war.

Student: That would be horrible.

Teacher: why?

Student: There would be one more lesson added in our history book.

Teacher: Who is smart? Put up your hand.

Then all the students except Amir raise their hand.

Teacher: Amir, why aren't you raising your hand?

Amir: Because if I raise my hand then you'll be all alone.

"How are you getting on with your exams?"

"Not bad. The questions are easy enough – it's the answers I have trouble with!"
